

Domaine de Fabregue

Located between the Dentelles de Montmirail and Mont Ventoux, the historic family-owned Mas Domaine de Fabrègue has 10 hectares of vines. The name Fabrègue means "brick factory" in Provençal because tiles and construction materials were made here in Gallo-Roman times. Today, Didier Charon, owner and winegrower, is devoted to tending his vines like a skilled craftsman and in harmony with the nature.
