AOC Saint-Joseph, Vallée du Rhône, France

TERROIR

The Cru of the Northern Côtes du Rhône, located in the northern part of the Ardèche department, on the right bank of the Rhône River. The vineyard is planted on the former 'historic' terroir of the vine, on granite terraces facing south and southeast. The vineyard stretches over about fifty kilometers. It is spread across 26 municipalities in the Ardèche and Loire departments. This wine-growing area is planted on narrow terraces and steep slopes, primarily granite-based.

VARIETAL

Syrah 100%

SERVING

14-16°C

TASTING

Deep red color, with notes of red fruits and a slight woody touch, along with aromas of wild blackberries.

The bouquet is quite aromatic, complex, powerful, and intense, with red fruit notes (blackcurrant, raspberry, blackberry, violet). The palate is powerful, with fine tannins and a beautiful structure, featuring notes of sour cherries. This cuvée promises excellent aging potential.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Ideal with red meats, game birds, and a wide range of cheeses.
