

CVR, Terre de Schistes, AOC Saint-Joseph, Blanc, 2023

AOC Saint-Joseph, Vallée du Rhône, France

TERROIR

The Cru of the Northern Côtes du Rhône, located in the northern part of the Ardèche department, on the right bank of the Rhône River. The vineyard is planted on the former 'historic' terroir of the vine, on granite terraces exposed to the south and southeast. The vineyard stretches over about fifty kilometers. It is spread across 26 municipalities in the Ardèche and Loire departments. This wine-growing area is planted on narrow terraces and steep slopes, primarily granite-based."

VARIETALS

Marsanne, Roussanne

SERVING

8-10°C

TASTING

The Saint-Joseph white wine has a beautiful yellow color with green reflections. The nose is intense, fine, and complex. Floral notes dominate, with acacia, blended with honeyed tones. Over time, the bouquet will evolve with spicy notes. On the palate, the attack is soft and well-balanced. A lovely sensation of roundness. The acidity is refined and will allow the wine to age well.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Ideal with fish, seafood, as well as desserts
