

Château Roustan, AOC Costières de Nîmes, Organic Red, 2021

AOC Costières de Nîmes, Vallée du Rhône, France

The Estate covers 70ha in the heart of the Costières de Nîmes appellation. The Castillon family, owner of the property, has a long lasting commitment towards sustainable viticulture.

PRESENTATION

Located on the southern slopes of the Costières de Nîmes area, facing the Camargue & the Mediterranean sea, the property was created by monks in the 12th century. After the French Revolution, the Castillon family bought the estate and still owns the property nowadays. The vineyard is Organic certified and has started to convert towards biodynamic viticulture.

LOCATION

The vineyard benefits from a southern exposure. During the summer, the sea breeze preserves the freshness of the wines and increases the aromatic palette of the grape varieties.

TERROIR

Pebbles from the Quaternary era.

WINEMAKING

Grapes are harvested at the coolest hours of the day. After cold maceration during 3 days, the fermentation undergoes at controlled temperatures.
